

SCOTTISH STORYTELLING CENTRE

Fringe Programme
August 2024

Welcome!

Throughout the year, the Scottish Storytelling Centre offers a platform for storytellers, musicians, dancers and all creative minds to explore cultures and traditions, old and new, in Scotland today.

For the Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2024, we have curated a high-quality programme which reflects the energy and variety of our year-round offer. Some of these exciting new performances have been developed in partnership with the Scottish International Storytelling Festival, and we are delighted to feature two Made in Scotland showcase events as well as the return of some sell-out favourites from previous years. Our range of enhanced performances including BSL interpreted, relaxed and captioned shows can be found on pg.16.

Whether seeing a show, browsing our bookshop or refreshing yourself at the Haggis Box Café, the Scottish Storytelling Centre is the perfect place for locals, families and visitors to meet for a creative and authentic Edinburgh experience.

We look forward to welcoming you!

The Tree and Her Tale

JESS AQUILINA

The story of a friendship between a Boy and a magical storytelling Tree. Each day the Tree tells her tales to the Boy, until the cruel Winds arrive and rid the Tree of all her leaves and their stories, leaving her broken and bare. It is now down to the Boy to protect his friend at all costs. Combining puppetry, music and storytelling, this wholesome show celebrates the importance of friendship and supporting one another.

An American Love Letter to Edinburgh

RICK CONTE

Benjamin Franklin loved Edinburgh. He visited in 1759 and 1771, making pals with all the luminaries of the time and enjoying lively debates in the Old Town's famous Oyster Club. In this funny and informative show, Rick Conte (The Man Who Planted Trees) tells the tale of his countryman's Scottish enlightenment, echoing his own experiences of the city that took him in 35 years ago and has yet to spit him out. Directed by Andy Cannon.

Animate Lands: A Celtic Mythic Cycle

DOUGIE MACKAY & FREYA RAE

A journey through the storied soul of Scotland. Tales of ancient bards, wily druids, shapeshifters, wildlings and warrior poets are brought to life in a contemporary storytelling style with live music. This fresh and joyful take on Celtic lore and Scotland's landscape was a sell-out hit at the Scottish International Storytelling Festival 2022 and Edinburgh Fringe 2023.

Joyfully Grimm: Reimagining a Queer Adolescence

JAMES STEDMAN

1988. One boy is growing up in myth and magic, unaware that Section 28, prohibiting the "promotion of homosexuality", is moving to silence his tale and those of anyone like him. Combining traditional fairy tales and original poetry, with help from a grumpy frog, storyteller James Stedman takes a heartfelt, slightly irreverent look at our history. Directed by Molly Naylor. ## The Other

THE OTHER

From Scotland, Iran, Chile, Brazil, Yemen and Syria comes a multimedia performance exploring culture and displacement. Nine musicians, a dancer, a visual artist and a filmmaker, some with lived experience of forced displacement, come together to explore the music, stories and experiences of their different cultures. A vibrant and moving experience.

Thunderstruck

DAVID COLVIN

The Herald Angel award-winning smash hit of modern Scottish theatre returns to the Edinburgh Fringe for a fifth successive year. The tragic, comic and epic tale of the greatest bagpiper that ever lived, who rocked tradition, flew beyond the summit of his art and changed Scottish music forever. Whatever notions you have of bagpipes, leave them at the door.

Orpheus/Orfeo

DAN SERRIDGE, NEIL WOOD & HEATHER CARTWRIGHT

The story of Orpheus and Eurydice gets a Scottish twist in this dark and dangerous telling of the famous Greek myth as the Shetland ballad of King Orfeo swirls into the murky depths of Hades' underworld. Storyteller Daniel Serridge, harpist Neil Wood and balladeer Heather Cartwright take you deep below the earth and back again, pushing you forward, dragging you home and demanding that you don't look back! ## Hero/Banlaoch

SINÉAD O'BRIEN

Growing up, Sinéad's Dad was a hero right out of the Irish myths he told his daughter – stories of warriors, shapeshifters and magic wells. But as Sinéad grows up and her father relapses into addiction, they are both forced to re-examine the stories they told themselves. Expertly combining Irish epics with personal stories. ## Rogues So Banished

PAUL CASE

New South Wales, 1790. The penal colony is on the brink of starvation. Three convicts escape with murderous intentions in hope of a reward. But as they become lost and dragged deeper into the forest, it's clear they are trapped in a nightmare of their own making... Told in the demotic slang of the era, writer and actor Paul Case's visceral new solo show breaks new ground in horror whilst taking you on a bloody journey into the dark depths of Australia's history.

Do Not Look Away: The Story of Medusa

LILY ASCH & DIMITRIS KOUNATIADIS

Look closer at the story of Medusa... the image of a monster with snakes for hair and a gaze that turns men to stone. But how did Medusa come to be? And what of the hero who slayed her? A moving storytelling performance with live musical accompaniment from Dimitris Kounatiadis.
